As a delightful sessed during the summer months the Ohlo Weite Salphur Pyrings have no rival to the West, and but few in the United States. The location is peculiarly healthy, the Sciolo here is arapid, rocky stream; the "Cifff Linestone," a formation hundreds of feet in thickness, through which the river cuts its way, is every where either at or near the surface, the grounds of the estate are beautifully undurated, and interspersed with numerous ray-lines which carry off all the superfluous water, thus rendering the soil try and the atmosphere free from that humidity so prejudicial to health; these circumstance, in en in connection with the altitude of the place, about 1,000 feet above the level of the ocean, make the locality, as free from malaricus influences as a mountain region.
